

Quiz Questions - Walk & Talk and Other Non-Traditional Therapy Settings - Part 2

1. What is environmental safe uncertainty?
 - a. A discomfort with global warming theory leading to eco anxiety
 - b. A position of openness, curiosity and collaboration regarding the therapy environment, including the possibility of other environments being more conducive to therapy
 - c. A position of rigidity about when and where therapy should be performed
 - d. Feeling uncertain in your environment and determining that unsafe
2. These types of treatment should not be considered due to accessibility issues.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. What should not be in your informed consent?
 - a. Additional fees for these services
 - b. How confidentiality will be managed
 - c. Policy regarding clinician safety
 - d. The client's insurance carrier
4. You can use your same informed consent as the services will look the same as traditional in-office therapy.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. The following are risks to confidentiality in these nontraditional settings:
 - a. Being seen coming to the client's home regularly
 - b. Being seen with your client outside
 - c. Spaces without walls or doors where people can pass by and hear portions of the conversation
 - d. All of the above
6. When discussing confidentiality when planning to be in public with your client you should do the following:
 - a. Co-create a plan for what you will do in common situations (like if someone walks up to either the therapist or the client, what will be said)
 - b. Have the client sign away their right to confidentiality in the informed consent
 - c. Only meet in deserted or private areas
 - d. Wear dark glasses and a mask and walk quickly
7. Dual relationships are always problematic and must be avoided.
 - a. True
 - b. False
8. What do you need to assess before starting these nontraditional settings?
 - a. Insurance or other payor coverage
 - b. Malpractice insurance and liability insurance coverage (including slip and fall)
 - c. Scope of practice and scope of competence
 - d. All of the above
9. Your strongest strategy as a clinician while working in these settings is to obtain training, consult, and document.
 - a. True
 - b. False
10. When clinicians are considering starting these services, they must manage and communicate the following with their clients:
 - a. Any additional fees
 - b. Risks and plans to mitigate these risks
 - c. Scheduling and logistics, including a communication plan
 - d. All of the above